GROWTH MODE CONTINUES, WITH WCRE ADDING NEW SALES ASSOCIATE Christopher Henderson Brings Unique Skills and Talent to the South Jersey Firm

March 17, 2014 – Marlton, NJ – Wolf Commercial Real Estate (WCRE) is pleased to announce the hiring of sales associate Christopher Henderson. Henderson comes to WCRE from the sales and customer service field, which he worked in after a five-year professional baseball career. His areas of expertise include client services, marketing, social media, and entrepreneurship.

Henderson will be responsible for advising and supporting clients throughout their various commercial real estate transactions. His hiring brings WCRE, which recently marked its second anniversary, to a team of nine.

“We expect great things from Chris, and I am confident our clients will come to value his energy, expertise, and service,” said Jason Wolf, founder and principal of WCRE. “I am also confident that we are now the only firm in the region with an All-American on our team.”

Henderson is a licensed salesperson in New Jersey. He was a first team All-American baseball player at George Mason University, and spent several years as a top prospect in the Los Angeles Dodgers organization. He lives in Marlton with his wife and daughter.
