NAI Global Announces New Office in Greece

New York City, NY – October 1, 2018: Jay Olshonsky, SIOR, FRICS and President of NAI Global announced that Athens-based NAI RealAct will serve Greece with office, industrial, investment, land sales/development, multifamily and hotels/hospitality/resort.

Anna Nazou, MRICS is the Principal Founder, Managing Director, and Equity Partner of NAI RealAct.

With offices in Athens and a large network of external affiliates, NAI RealAct provides a comprehensive range of professional commercial real estate services, including valuations, property acquisitions, investment transactions consultancy, tenant and buyer representation, leasing, sales, developing, project management and real estate consulting.

“The financial climate is rapidly improving in Greece. Most financial indicators are outperforming targets, while the real estate market is entering a new era, driven by improved sales volume and stronger demand for all types of property. Take up (leasing) of commercial property is picking up and new international investors are expressing interest in our markets. The NAI RealAct team is ready to support this increasing wave for real estate services, after many years of almost no real estate development activity,” said Anna Nazou.

Anna Nazou is one of the first chartered valuation surveyors to be accredited by the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors (RICS) in Greece, serving as an RICS assessor and examiner, having also served as member of RICS Hellas Board twice. She currently serves RICS as member, to the elected by the board, Valuation Professional Group. She has more than 15 years of experience in the industry and has worked on some of the largest commercial real estate transactions in Greece. Earlier in her career, she was director of international business for CBRE, having also worked with BNPP Real Estate, alliance partners of Danos SA. She has also completed several projects as project partner to NGKF.

Panagiotis Boukouvalas is also a principal with NAI RealAct, which has a total staff of 10, including seven professionals with expertise in valuation, commercial agency and development-project management. With the support of partners Panagiotis Boukouvalas, George Argyropoulos, senior consultants Ioannis Lizas MRICS and George Fantis in commercial agency, NAI RealAct’s team has represented a number of multinational clients with valuations and feasibility studies for financial institutions and private, corporate and fund management firms on properties located in Greece, Cyprus, Poland, Bulgaria, Romania, Hungary, Czech Republic, Serbia and Croatia.
